- 25X1 1. On 11 February 1954, the quarters of Unit Zurkin in the Loewen Kaserne (2063), Doeberitz, were heavily occupied. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. On 10 February, about 20 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and carrying cable reels and carbines; and about 40 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia and equipped with 3 light machine guns, practice targets and flags were seen entering the quartering area. On 4 February, the quarters of Unit Medvedyev were heavily occupied as previously. Sentries seen wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 9 February, 2 SU-122 guns and, on 10 February, about 25X1 30 lined-up troops, wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, were seen in the barracks area. On 11 February, the quarters of Unit Timoshenko were heavily occupied by troops wearing black-bordered black epaulets with engineer insignia. On 9 February, 1 truck with a pontoon section was seen en route on Kasernenstrasse. 25X1

The shed at Till Eulenspiegel settlement, where the pontoons of the unit had previously been, had been dismantled prior to 10 February.

2. On 11 February, the quarters of Unit Yuppa in the Adler Kaserne (2063) were heavily occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. An undetermined number of troops received instruction on 3 JS-3 tanks in the quartering area.
3. On 11 February, the quarters of Unit Kovalyev in Olympisches Dorf (2067) were heavily occupied. About 130 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with motor transport insignia were lined up in front of the headquarters building and on the road north of Olympisches Dorf. On 9 February, the hospital was occupied as previously. On 10 February, the Till Eulenspiegel settlement was occupied by officer families.
4. On 11 February, the quarters of Unit Berezin in the barracks installation west of Olympisches Dorf (2065) were heavily occupied. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia. On 10 February, about 90 troops carrying light field pack and several flags and armed with carbines, submachine guns and 2 light machine guns left the quartering area for the athletic field north of the installation. On 11 February, the quarters of Unit Busigin were occupied as previously. On 10 February, the quarters of Unit Boshko, Olympisches Dorf, were heavily occupied by troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia.
5. On 11 February, the central and south sections of Altes Lager (2061) were heavily occupied. Two 57-mm AT guns and 2 x 37-mm AA guns were observed in 2 wooden sheds and an undetermined number of troops received instruction on a 57-mm AT gun in the barracks area. On 11 February, the quarters of Unit Lebedyev were occupied as previously.

6. On 11 February, the Panzer Kaserne in Gross Glienicke (2141) was heavily occupied with about 20 percent of the occupation being Soviet border guard troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets; 40 percent East German border guard personnel wearing black-bordered green epaulets; and 40 percent a KVP school. [redacted]

25X1 [redacted] buildings belonging to Unit Pavelyukov and located outside the installation included building No 12 on See Promenade, and a building on Sakrower See, 25X1 which, after 1 January 1954, served as billets for officers and, presumably, Soviet families; and Haus Waldfrieden on Sakrower See, which was occupied by 1 major and about 40 to 60 troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets.

7. On 11 February, the installation in Staaken (2069) was heavily occupied by a Soviet border guard detail of troops wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets. The installation consisted of 2 three-story buildings and 1 two-story building. The detail still 25X1 belonged to Unit Pavelyukov, Gross-Glienicke, and furnished guard personnel for the 25X1 Staaken railroad station and the interzonal control post at Heer Strasse. [redacted]

[redacted] a radio station at Staaken airfield, with troops stationed there wearing black-bordered crimson epaulets and being subordinate directly to offices in Karlshorst. 1

8. On 11 February, the Kavallerie Schule (2161) in Kranznitz was heavily occupied. Troops 25X1 observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. One Captain Zukhev, who was in charge of the former ammunition depot in Bullenwinkel and the Hasenheidenberg cantonment, was determined in the quartering area. [redacted]

9. The Hasenheidenberg cantonment was occupied by a small guard detail. Between 9 and 11 February, source determined that, in addition to military installations, the following buildings were occupied by Soviet families: buildings Nos 14 and 16 on Blumenstrasse, Dallgow, with families there including Major Vaichuk; 3 buildings 25X1 on Parkstrasse, Finkenkrug; and 1 large building at the intersection of Bredow Strasse and Ringpromenade, and 1 building near Koch Strasse, both on Stalin Allee, Falkensee. 1 25X1

10. On 8 February, the quarters of the unit of Colonel Tyuleniyev in the Flugplatz Kaserne (2381), Schoenwalde, were heavily occupied. [redacted]

25X1 the name of the colonel was spelled Tyuleniyev, rather than Tulenyev. [redacted]

25X1 [redacted] Lieutenant Colonel Kusnetsov had been transferred. [redacted]

11. On 8 February, the quarters of Unit Chesnakov were heavily occupied as previously. 25X1 Troops observed in the barracks area engaged in service of the piece drill on 2 x 132- 25X1 mm rocket launchers. 3

1. [redacted] Comment. The units of the 1st Mecz Div, the 2d Light Arty Brig (US) and the 25X1 [redacted] can be carried in their quarters until 11 February. [redacted]

25X1 [redacted] Judging from the known officer names, the units are distributed in the installations as previously.

2. [redacted] Comment. [redacted] all elements of the units of the 10th 25X1 Gds Tank Div were present at the Kavallerie Schule in early February. [redacted]

[redacted] Captain Zukhev (fnu) is known.

3. [redacted] Comment. The information confirms in the Flugplatz Kaserne, Schoenwalde, the 25X1 units of the 31st AAA Div and the 90th RL Regt (US) of the Second Gds Mecz Army with their known officers until 8 February. [redacted]
